Is the World Running Away from Democracy?

Dr. Miron Wolnicki
Professor

When: Sunday, February 17, 2019 at 3 PM

Where: Associated Polish Home (Dom Polski), 9150 Academy Road, Philadelphia, PA 19114

Free admission

Join us for the lecture, with pączki and coffee!

About the Lecturer

Miron Wolnicki was born in Poland. He graduated in 1974 from the Faculty of Foreign Trade at the University of Łódź. From 1974 to 1981 he was an assistant and then an assistant professor at the Institute of Economics of the University of Łódź. He earned his doctorate in 1980 in the field of U.S. international economic policy. He was an adviser and interpreter for the NBC television network during Pope John Paul II's first visit to Poland, in 1979. He was actively involved in Solidarity until he left Poland. Since 1981 he has been a professor in the Department of Economics at Villanova University, PA, where he teaches Global Political Economy (GEP) to BA and MBA students. He provides consulting for American investment firms in Poland. Dr. Wolnicki is the author of a number of interesting publications on GEP and, as an experienced commentator, takes part in Polonia meetings with figures from politics, science, and culture. He hosted a university meeting with, among others, President of the Republic of Poland Lech Wałęsa. He collaborates professionally with several universities in Poland. He supports Polonia organizations in Philadelphia. He is a director on the board of PUL and vice chair of the Philadelphia Chapter of The Kosciuszko Foundation. His wife, Marcia Greary-Wolnicki, is chair of the Foundation's Philadelphia Chapter. Together they have six grown children.