About the Lecture

Jan Matejko is the unrivaled painter of our history. We have known and admired his paintings since childhood. The speaker will talk about several selected paintings by the Master and will shed light on his many secrets and the puzzles connected with the interpretation of his painting.

About the Lecturer

Wojciech Budzyński was born in 1963 in Łódź. A lawyer by training, he is by passion an enthusiast of Polish militaria. After being arrested by the SB (Security Service) and expelled in his fourth year from the Faculty of Law and Administration at the University of Łódź, he has lived abroad as an émigré since 1985. He is the longtime president of the Andrzej Zaremba Polish Militaria Enthusiasts' Club (Klub Miłośników Militariów Polskich im. Andrzeja Zaremby) and editor-in-chief of the magazine Hetman. He is the author of many articles on the history of the Polish Army, published in the United States, Great Britain, and Poland. Mr. Budzyński lives in New York.
